

COOPERATION TO STOP BEACH GRAB IS ASKED

The Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, and the Mayors of every California community, have been requested by the California Legislature to cooperate in the fight to prevent the Federal Government from confiscating 1,200 miles of California's marginal lands.

The request is embraced in the body of a Joint Resolution unanimously passed last week by the Senate and Assembly condemning the tidelands seizure and memorializing Congress and President Truman to confirm California's title to the marginal lands.

In Washington the first step toward this objective has already been taken. A Joint Congressional Sub-Committee has recommended passage of Senate Bill 1988 quietclaiming the lands to California.

Copies of the Legislature's Joint Resolution are being mailed by the Secretary of the Senate and of the Assembly to all County Boards of Supervisors, and Mayors, enlisting their support in the struggle to preserve the sovereignty of the State and of its people against Federal trespass.

Important emphasis is laid in the Joint Resolution on the fact that California's beaches and parks are now used and enjoyed by 22,000,000 people annually and that these beaches and parks are supported principally by income derived by the State from the tidelands area. The Joint Resolution traces the history of the tidelands ownership by California since its admission to the Union as a State a century ago and stresses that the U. S. Constitution clearly upholds the principal of state sovereignty over lands not ceded to the Federal Government.

The Resolution also stresses that the Federal ownership claim jeopardizes title held privately and by the State to harbor developments and industrial sites as well as to recreational areas.

CHINO RANCH RIDE

California's almost legendary "Robin Hood" bandit, Joaquin Murrieta, and his henchman, Juan Tres Dedos ("Three-fingered Jack"), reputedly used a hidden valley in the Chino hills, a few hours' drive distant from Los Angeles, as a hideout. Every spring, horsemen of the Chino area make a trek up the green Sequoia Canyon to the valley. This spring the ride starts at 9:00 a.m., April 24 at historic Don Lugo Ranch. Some 2,000 persons will make the ride on horseback or in horse-drawn vehicles. Riders include the Chino Riders Club, sheriff's posse and costumed horsemen and women. Prizes for youngest, oldest, best-costumed riders.

Scouts Collect Records For Mental Patients

E. A. Greene, Harbor District Boy Scout executive announced that the Scouts have been asked to participate in a service project in the nature of the collection of used phonograph records for use in mental and penal institutions. The California Vocational Institution at Lancaster; California Institute for Men, Chino; Camarillo State Hospital, Camarillo; Norwalk State Hospital, Norwalk; and Patton State Hospital, Patton, have requested phonograph records to use in connection with a program of musical therapy. In the past because of the great expense involved they have not been able to extensively include such a program in their methods of treatment.

Boy Scouts are to assist in the collection and disposition at neighborhood depositories. Anyone wishing to donate records may do so to the Boy Scout office, 813 Neptune avenue, Wilmington.

HERMOSA POLICE OFFICER ENDS HIS OWN LIFE

Nels Anderson, 67, for the past 15 years a member of the Hermosa Beach Police department, took his life last Thursday night in his home, 901 13th street, police reported. He had been in ill health recently, and shot himself through the head, said fellow officers who found him in bed with a service revolver lying at his side.

Little United Nations At Torrance High School

Cosmopolitan High School—not a new name for Torrance High but a new phrase to describe it.

A look at the registry of students will disclose a Dutch girl, who tells us that her people do not wear wooden shoes, a full-blooded American Indian, who believes in suffrage for his people, a Japanese boy, who made the trip from Japan by himself, and a Canadian boy, who corrects an impression that British subjects do not go about saying, "Cheerio, Ole Chap, pip, pip, and all that, you know."

The Dutch girl, 18-year-old, Miesja De Haas, recently came here from Holland with her uncle Cornelius De Haas with whom she is now staying at 720 Cota avenue. When asked if Holland had any of the popular windmill type bakeries we have in California, she said, "The bakeries, no. The windmills we have."

A natural question for a reporter to ask a pretty Dutch girl was, "What do you think of the American boys?"

"Oh, Dutch boys are hand-some . . . oh, goodness, you had better not put that in your paper. I have started to make to many friends here in Torrance." This last came out under a charming full Dutch blush.

Miesja speaks four languages including French, German, English, and Dutch.

If American youths complain about taking English, think of the plight of George Ymaguchi, the 18-year-old high school graduate of Kagoshima, Japan who is taking three hours of English a day. At present he speaks no English and must carry a battered English-Japanese dictionary with him as his only means of communication. The lad, who made the trip from Japan by himself, finds it strange to go to school with girls as in his country schools are not co-educational. He said it was strange also to wear the same clothes to school that one wears for everyday use. In Japan, students wear special school clothes and change when they reach home, he said. (Perhaps it should be mentioned here that since we do not speak Japanese the foregoing statements were made through an interpreter). George is at present living with relatives at 3400 240th street, Waveria.

Torrance High's own full-blooded American Indian, 17-year-old John Pinto, had difficulties with the English language but not with the ideals that have made America a haven for oppressed peoples throughout the world. He said: "We most Indians do not allow to vote, even those who served in the armed forces. I think this is undemocracy. I think all Indian should be allowed to vote on account of we are people of the United States of America."

Pinto, who is planning to go to college to become a teacher, had this to say about education.

"I am lucky that I am getting an education. Some of my people are too poor to go to school. The government has not fulfilled its promise to educate the Indian. I think the government should do this."

Don Gazeley, a 16-year-old 9th grader from Alberta, Canada, arrived here three weeks ago by himself to live with his aunt, Mrs. Paul Axelsson, of 24259 Nece avenue, Waveria. Don finds it easier to adapt himself to American customs than most newcomers to this country since many of Canada's ways of life is similar to America's. Here on a traveler's permit, Don hopes to remain and go to an American college.

National Guard 'B' Company Activation Soon

Plans are being completed to activate Company B, 578th Engineer Combat Battalion, California National Guard, and commissioned and non-commissioned grades are open to qualified men, according to Major Clyde C. Carpenter, commanding officer of the battalion which is headquartered at the administration building on Torrance Municipal Airport.

Company B will be the third unit of the battalion to be activated, with Federal recognition and pay for each drill period which means that the unit will be recognized by the Federal government and men will be paid one days regular army pay for each two hour drill period. The other units are the headquarters and service companies and Company A.

Lettered units are line companies.

Major Carpenter said that there are many opportunities for veterans and other qualified to secure commissions and non-commissioned grades in various lines of the service. This includes clerks, supply men, mechanics, motor vehicle operators, tractor operators, cooks, ordinance men and others. Grades include from first lieutenant down to corporal.

Enlistments are being accepted each Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Administration building on the airport. Information is available at any time from active duty men who are stationed at the temporary armory on the airport, it was said.

CHURCH CHILDREN'S WORKERS MEET SLATED IN APRIL

Church children's workers of Southern California will meet in Los Angeles April 12-13, for a conference on the theme "For Children Everywhere," according to Rev. Wilbur C. Parry, associate general secretary of the Southern California Council of Protestant Churches.

The conference is called to help adults become aware of the need of children for religious training, according to Mr. Parry. The conference will be for key denominational and interdenominational children's workers in Southern California, directors of Christian education, weekday religious education teachers, and selected parents, pastors, and children's workers in welfare and other agencies.

State Income Taxes Due For Payment Apr. 15

Will you have to pay State income tax? If so it is due and payable on or before April 15, Franchise Tax Commissioner Charles J. McColgan warned today.

Single persons whose net income in 1947 was $8000 or more, or whose gross income was $6000 or more, and married persons whose net income was $4500 or a minimum gross of $6000 must pay the State income tax.

Since the State has higher exemptions, many of those who paid Federal income tax will not be required to file a return with the state.

Returns can be mailed, and should be addressed to Franchise Tax Commission, State Building, Los Angeles, 12.
